

it is only when we stop defending the lands of wonder and stop believing in Dragons that we truly begin to dim when we stop defending lost causes just because they are lost and not because we no longer believe them to be true
we will surely lose some of what we are

The Rock

The last night of Summer
The first day of fall
A walker of Shadows Sends good wishes to all The air is warm Comforting and still Through the darkness I travel at will Trusting my feelings
To the forest I talk
On to the Great oak
I now shall walk

Three fires burning bright In the darkness of the night Bringing everlasting light To those who never give up the fight

Hey X I'm up here trying to read what's on the wall But it's so hard I get some and then that's it & some is backwards and some not right I want to know if it's old or new and what it means I know it's talking about the gods But I don't know what I love it out here

If all is not lost in this place of magic and wonder I will be protected from the thunder

A rainy night as the wind does howl and tree

Good luck friends

The stores still stand on shifting sand too easily it would be no dare

The lost core here to only drink beer the third core and at twilight fear

Some core and look with outward eye and can only wonder why?

So few now, it seems really know what this place really means Look without seeing Feel without being dream without sleeping

find the way so few now find and act to peace your tornzicted mind if you know what this place means you need not sleep to find your dreams

Have you found the Lonely Oak??

Each year its outer stone wall grows like the outer ring of the tree itself storing by storing those that visit this magical place keep adding to the wall as the tree adds to their wellbeing. It is a place of healing, white magic. Find the Lonely Oak

Hail to the Gods
And Ancients of Old, Wise old Sages
Your stones still told
Be here now,
in spirit we pray Guide our hearts to
As we follow your way Thanks and praise
And blessings to thee Ancient ones ever mighty

For those of like spirit -

Two walking

Two talking

On the way home

all day they did room

Got turned around in the wood

looking for the one in boat and hood

We wish them well and good speed, not sure whence this day will lead

This place is for all to use

But please lets not abuse

Do not be a pest and clean the mess

All are welcome

but lets keep it clean for those that come and see for the first time

should see it as you did

before this mess

Devam - Time to give me a call - Dad

Two rabbits

one the other

from the other in blue

who will come

Of all the places world wide

this is the place

to come and hide

We will watch

in boat and land

during the night

and just in the wood

We may have a

price to pay

For mistakes you have made along the way

So go and do what you know is right face your fears and stop your flight then come back and we just may be able to show you

a better way.

Vice may be exchanged for virtue without the loss of respectability popularity or happiness

This is a place to find yourself when lost, heal yourself when sick, remember yourself when you have forgotten

It is a first step to a better way and a last step at the end of your days

I have lit fires here for those new friends just starting the journey and I have lit fires for old friends who have passed away

As we wander

in forest green

friends also pass

but are seldom seen

Use this book

to make your word known to others that wander and roam

Come after and read what others write and learn how really have joined the fight

To find old friends or make new, this book is a contact to others like you

The forest does belong to all this book will remain until the fall.
