Hey! D.G. and hill people.

1/27/24

I have not been up here since Jan. 1st 2021 or 2022.
a lot of trees cleared out fell down by cemetery.
much brighter walk up than it used to be.

New bike trails and signs naming trails!

interesting. others gone, missing.

Old keeper signs also missing "fairy mound"
for example.

(this location)

Some are put the bike trails on google maps!?!? ∴
I'm glad it has not been destroyed.

hopefully never will.

It's worth sharing but word of mouth is prob.
better than Super public.

Super excited to see this back track!

I wish I could get here more. It is so peaceful & quiet. Minus some people hollering deep in the woods having a good time.

The murder of crows (10's) are hawking at something. They don't sound happy.

They are far away tho. Maybe I will scope it out.
38° late Jan. day. misty met foggy Awesome!

The water run off was nice.
I see the maple Syrup harvest continuing and the New Sign here.

Very cool wood Work!

Still need to make an etching of the Wall Someday.

I still have my walking stick.

Wish I could be more active.

I might make an effort to get up here more.

Really glad to see this book and the other! I will read that next.

Hope all is well
